READINGS for —SUNDAY 4th JUNE 2023

The Lesson—read by Rosie Niedzwiecki (Sunday School)

A reading from Genesis, chapter 1.

In the beginning, the world was empty.

Darkness was everywhere.

But God had a plan.

God separated the light from the darkness.

“Let there be light!” he said.

And the light turned on.

He called the light “day”.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Epistle—read by Christopher Johnston (Sunday School)

A reading from 2nd Corinthians, chapter 13.

And now, my friends, good-bye! Strive for perfection; listen to my appeals; agree with one another; live in peace. And the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the kiss of peace.

All of God's people send you their greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Gospel reading—read by Charlie Lynn (Rossorry Scout Troop)

A reading from the Gospel according to St Matthew, chapter 28

Glory to you , Lord Jesus Christ.

Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. Then Jesus came to them and said, ‘All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Communion Services on Wednesday Mornings until the end of June at 10.30am and will include a prayer for Healing.

If you would like a name included (just the Christian name) in the prayers—please advise the Rector or Churchwardens in

A big thanks from the Foodbank for your continuing donations.

Please keep up the donations—the need has not gone away !

Place items—dry goods , tinned goods , tea and coffee, pot noodles, pot rice etc in the boxes at the Church doors.

DEATH NOTICES

Please be advised that a Death Notice of a Parishioner will not appear in the Weekly News unless specifically requested by the family by notifying the Office or the Rector.

Thank you.

Could you help the Scouts?

We are looking for some help with the roles of Treasurer and Secretary within our scout council. We meet as a council only a few times a year and need the following roles to help keep our books in order. If you think you could spare a couple of hours a few times a year then please get in touch.

Dear JMPS Family

We wish to draw your attention to drop off and pick up time at Jones Memorial Primary School. We are asking that you drive and park responsibly. Adhere to slow driving, follow arrows, do not park on double yellow lines and do not enter the Staff Car Park UNLESS this has been agreed with the Principal.

We are very concerned that our children are moving about and that unless we have rules, someone may come to harm.

Thank you for ONLY parking in the spaces provided and for taking the time to hold your child by the hand. ♥

Please share this important message with Granny, Granda, Childminders and anyone else who collects your child. We want everyone to be very safe

Thank you

Words of encouragement and prayer for King Charles III as he visits the Hill of Armagh

The members of the Church Leaders Group (Ireland), along with other church representatives, this morning met with His Majesty King Charles III when he visited St Patrick's Church of Ireland Cathedral on the Hill of Armagh.

On the site of St Patrick's 5th century 'Great Stone Church', The King had the opportunity to hear something of the work of the Church in Ireland in relation to peace building, environmental issues, and work with the impoverished and with those from other places in the world now living in the local community in Northern Ireland.

A period of reflection and intercession followed during which the Church Leaders prayed for God's blessing and guidance for The King.

The King was hosted by the Dean of Armagh, the Very Revd Shane Forster, who welcomed His Majesty to the ecclesiastical capital and to 'this shared sacred space, where for centuries pilgrims have come to learn, pray and experience the loving presence of God.'

The Cathedral Choir, which was founded by a charter of King Charles I in 1634, was honoured to sing the words of 'St Patrick's Breastplate' upon the King's arrival and the gentle and calming words of the 'Irish Blessing' to a setting by Bob Chilcott during the time of prayer.

Archbishop McDowell remarked, 'The King is no stranger to Northern Ireland, nor indeed to the whole island of Ireland, for which I know he has a particular affection and friendship. I know too that he comes today with words of encouragement to the Church Leaders as we continue to work towards a reconciled future. Our prayers of blessing for The King and Queen today will continue as together they enter ever more fully into their vocation in the years ahead.'

Dean Forster commented, 'In this Coronation year it was a great honour to welcome His Majesty The King to the Cathedral and have the opportunity to share something of the story of this ancient holy site and place of pilgrimage with him before all present joined in prayer with The King and for The King.'

'It was also a particular joy for the Cathedral Choir to sing for The King as they are the current members of a foundation which is linked to one of His Majesty's predecessors and namesake, King Charles I. A moment the young choristers will remember for a very long time to come.'
