READINGS for —SUNDAY 3rd September 2023

The Lesson

The Old Testament reading is from the book of the Prophet, Jeremiah in the fifteenth chapter beginning at the fifteenth verse.

LORD, you understand;

remember me and care for me.

Avenge me on my persecutors.

You are long-suffering – do not take me away;
think of how I suffer reproach for your sake.

When your words came, I ate them;
they were my joy and my heart's delight,

for I bear your name,
LORD God Almighty.

I never sat in the company of revellers,
never made merry with them;

I sat alone because your hand was on me
and you had filled me with indignation.

Why is my pain unending and my wound grievous and incurable?

You are to me like a deceptive brook,
like a spring that fails.

Therefore this is what the LORD says:

‘If you repent, I will restore you
that you may serve me;

if you utter worthy, not worthless, words,
you will be my spokesman.

Let this people turn to you,
but you must not turn to them.

I will make you a wall to this people,
a fortified wall of bronze;

they will fight against you
but will not overcome you,

for I am with you
to rescue and save you,’

declares the LORD.

‘I will save you from the hands of the wicked
and deliver you from the grasp of the cruel.’

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Epistle

The Epistle Reading is from the letter of St. Paul to the Romans in the twelfth chapter beginning to read at the ninth verse.

(Love in action)

Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil; cling to what is good. Be devoted to one another in love. Honour one another above yourselves. Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervour, serving the Lord. Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practise hospitality.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice; mourn with those who mourn. Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited.

Do not repay anyone evil for evil. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of everyone. If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone. Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: 'It is mine to avenge; I will repay,' says the Lord. On the contrary:

'If your enemy is hungry, feed him;
if he is thirsty, give him something to drink.
In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head.'

Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Hear the Gospel of our Saviour Christ, according to St Matthew, in the sixteenth chapter, beginning at the twenty first verse.

Glory to you , Lord Jesus Christ.

(Jesus predicts his death)

From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.

Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. ‘Never, Lord!’ he said. ‘This shall never happen to you!’

Jesus turned and said to Peter, ‘Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.’

Then Jesus said to his disciples, ‘Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me will find it. What good will it be for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul? Or what can anyone give in exchange for their soul? For the Son of Man is going to come in his Father’s glory with his angels, and then he will reward each person according to what they have done.

‘Truly I tell you, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
